PUBLIC WORKSHOP INPUT
DRAFT PARKS & RECREATION SYSTEM MASTER PLAN
JAN. 23, 2019

Below is a summary of public input received on the draft Parks & Recreation System Master Plan at a workshop held at the Cupertino Senior Center on the evening of January 23, 2019. It is provided as a summary of key points made by speakers. One written comment card was submitted by an attendee, and is attached. Among the comments were:

- Park land acquisition is a top priority
- Park equity, adding parks on the east side, walkable parks – are a top priority
- Trails & walkability are important
- Why spend $$ on a performing arts center?
- Unsure about the need for swimming pools; consider partnering if needed
- It's important for kids to learn to swim
- To provide more basketball, consider partnering with schools
- If a major facility is pursued, important to identify the O&M costs
- What further potential is there for school joint use agreements?

Other general input and questions included:

- Rancho San Antonio needs more parking
- Do community outreach for Lawrence Mitty
- Consider a parcourse on Saratoga Creek Trail
- What is the status of the Lawrence-Mitty acquisition? The San Fernando/Byrne parcel?
- Plan for flexibility, changing trends

Parks & Recreation System Master Plan

Public Workshop | 1/23/19

What do you like about the Master Plan?

Park improvement looks good.

What would you change or add to the Master Plan?

*Is the ^{plan of} Lawrence - Mitty park still available
Hope to see new parks at East Cupertino.
Some real parks, not a piece of tiny grassland at Main Street. That should not been call "local Parks".*

Do you have any other comments? (Please be as specific as possible. Include page numbers if known.)

*Still having performing and Fine Arts center? I think the Vallco plan is on hold. Why this plan is still there? Do funds have to be reserved?
Could parking lot for Rancho San Antonio be expanded?*
